

Susan Diane Moore Hedgepeth

May 5, 1957 - November 10, 2012

Susan Diane Moore Hedgepeth, 55, of Asheville died Saturday, November 10, 2012 in Winston Salem. A native of Asheville, she was daughter of the late Alvin and Marina Moore. She was also preceded in death by a brother, Terry Moore.

As a young girl, Susan studied classical guitar and piano extensively. She was a 1975 graduate of Enka High School and was a member of the high school band where she played the french horn. She attended Mars Hill College for two years, joining their band, continuing with the french horn. It was while attending Mars Hill, she met her husband, Byron Hedgepeth and they soon had a lovely daughter, Jessica.

Very strong in her Jewish faith, her given Hebrew name was Chanah Shulamit. Gifted with the ability to read and sing Hebrew, Shulamit taught preschool at the JCC, taught Hebrew School at Beth Israel Synagogue and tutored Bar and Bat Mitzvah Students. Well known to be a very talented teacher in the Jewish Community, she was a member of Chabad House Congregation.

She is survived by her husband, Byron; daughter, Jessica Hedgepeth Balkin and loving brother, Bobby Moore.

The love of Byron's life and a wonderful mother to daughter, Jessica, Susan was angelic in spirit, a very good person with a beautiful soul. Shulamit has always loved horses.

A graveside service will be held 3:00 PM, Monday, November 12, 2012 at Lou Pollock Cemetery with Mr. Yosi Knight officiating.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to The Chabad House, 660 Merrimon Avenue, Suite C, Asheville, NC 28804.

“ *I was blessed to have known her and spent many special moments with her in one of her favorite shops. I helped her dress for Jessica's wedding and she looked beautiful. I am so very sorry that she is gone too soon. My prayers are with you.

“ I will never forget and will always be grateful for "Miss Shuli's" kindness to my daughter Laura. The "2-year-olds" class at the JCC was Laura's first school experience, and she cried for many days when I would leave her in the morning. Shuli would hold Laura and walk outside and talk with her. Together they would admire the beauty of nature; they would look at leaves and flowers and pick some for Laura to give me. The love and concern Shuli showed us were without measure. The world has lost a beautiful, giving person. Thoughts and prayers to her family.

“ We are all so sad that Susan left us far too early, but all so grateful that she was able to see Jessica married to such a fine man. We send much love to Jessica and Craig and Byron and their families. Peace and Divine Strength to each of you. And a big hug.

Pardon me -- I accidentally deleted Evan's name here. Evan certainly sends his love, too.

Interestingly, Evan's name did appear but keeps being dropped out. Let me sign it specially, as he was pleased to be introduced to Jessica and Craig as Hedgepeths he had never met this summer.

“ Shulamit taught me Hebrew as an adult, using a little book with the song often sung on Friday nights on the way back home shul Sholem Aleichem. The words to the song translate as follows:

*Peace upon you, ministering angels, messengers of the Most High,
of the Supreme King of Kings, the Holy One, blessed be He.
Come in peace, messengers of peace, messengers of the Most High,
of the Supreme King of Kings, the Holy One, blessed be He.
Bless me with peace, messengers of peace, messengers of the Most High,
of the Supreme King of Kings, the Holy One, blessed be He.*

I am blessed to have known you, Shulamit. I remember the day you and Carol and me rode around downtown with all of our beautiful hats. I hope you are in a place of joy with Hashem.
