

Miss Susan Alice Schott

January 12, 1947 - September 27, 2014

Susan Alice Schott, born on January 12, 1947 in Albuquerque, New Mexico, died on September 27, 2014 after a brief illness, in Hendersonville, North Carolina. Susan, from childhood, was dedicated to the care of animals. She grew up in the West, living in Utah, Colorado and Iowa, many of those years on a farm in Lafayette, Colorado. Following high school she lived two years with her parents in Thailand before attending Western State University in Colorado. Susan also lived in Philadelphia before moving to northern Virginia where she worked as a social worker in hospitals in Front Royal and Leesburg. Susan earned a degree as a Licensed Veterinary Technician from the Northern Virginia Community College's Vet Tech program. She was employed at Ballston Animal Hospital and Alexandria Animal Hospital as well as doing pet-sitting. Over the years Susan fostered and adopted dozens of pets through rescue organizations and shelters, some injured and disabled. Children in her family, neighborhood and her friends' children were important to her, and she formally and informally fostered several. Susan's commitment to social justice was steadfast throughout her life. In retirement Susan relocated to Hendersonville, North Carolina where she continued her dedication to animal welfare as a volunteer. After a year of study, Susan converted to Judaism in August and took the name of Miriam, her mother's first name. Susan is survived by a wide circle of friends in northern Virginia and Hendersonville, NC. She is also survived by brothers James Schott (Carol), Paul Schott (Jean), and many nephews and nieces. She was predeceased by her brother Stephen Schott. Susan was laid to rest at Green Haven Preserve, South Carolina in a natural burial with a service officiated by Rabbi Schor. Memorial donations may be made to Team ECCO Center for Ocean Awareness at 511 N Main Street, Hendersonville, NC 28792. A memorial service will be held, 2:00 PM, Tuesday, October 7, 2014 at Agudas Israel Congregation, 505 Glasglow Lane, Hendersonville.

Cemetery Details

Green Haven Preserve

1701 Vanboklen
Eastover, SC 29044

Previous Events

Memorial Service

OCT 7 (ET)

Agudas Israel Congregation
505 Glasglow Lane
Hendersonville, NC 28791

Tribute Wall

“ Miss Susan Alice Schott

October 07, 2023 at 11:15 AM