

Tracie Thompson Coyle

July 6, 1976 - December 9, 2018

Tracie Thompson Coyle, 42, peacefully left us on December 9, 2018 after a brave fight with a cancer invasion. We praise God for her life!

She was blessed with incredible gifts, most notably her uncommon skill and bonding with children. Reared in Atlanta and Asheville, she attended Asheville High School, NC State University and Western Carolina University. She was a candidate for graduation with a Masters degree from East Carolina University. Her professional work encompassed lactation consulting and substance abuse counseling.

Tracie is survived by her parents, David and Susan Southerland Mackintosh and Glenn R. Thompson; her most beloved children, Lilian, Madeline and Aidan Coyle and their father, Michael Coyle; caring friend, Tara Johnson; and a bounty of supportive aunts and uncles. She is preceded in death by her step father, Fred J. Southerland; maternal grandparents, Melvin and Barbara Pandlis and paternal grandparents, Clarence and Thelma Thompson.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church Asheville since her youth. A funeral service will be held at 1:00pm on Thursday, December 13, 2018 in the chapel of Morris Funeral Home, 304 Merrimon Ave. The family will receive friends from 12:00pm until the time of service. Interment will follow immediately at Blue Ridge Gardens of Memory, 1017 Hendersonville Hwy, Pisgah Forest, NC 28768.

Condolences may be sent to the family through the website, www.morrisfamilyfuneralhome.com

“ *I am deeply sorry for the world's loss of Tracie! Especially for her family...
I just found out about this horrible news and wanted to share how precious Tracie has been in my life. She was invaluable to my family and first came into our lives as a breast feeding consultant with my daughter (And later my son). She made frequent visits and ALWAYS left leaving us feeling comforted and validated. She was such a beautiful light and incredibly talented. She was extremely generous and loving. All my prayers and love go out to her family* 💕

“ I only met Tracie once 4 months ago when she did a home visit on me as a lactation consultant. In that one meeting she helped me so greatly and touched me with her kindness and I have thought of her many times in the last 4 months. I am sad for our community to loose such a wonderful person.

“Trace” was one of the sunniest and most positive people I’ve ever known. We met at the Asheville Mother’s of Multiples Club as I had triplets and she has twins (all girls) We always shared our struggles and were able to find a laugh and the silver linings of every crazy event of motherhood. Tracie had a very generous heart and her warm presence will be missed by all who knew her. I am praying for her beautiful daughters and her family.

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family of Tracie Coyle. I am so very sorry and sad to hear of her death. My special memory is meeting Tracie and Aidan by chance in our neighborhood when I walked my dog. You both have such beautiful smiles and exude love and cheerfulness. Aidan, I especially hold you in my thoughts during this time. My love to all,

Gail Ward (Aidan's K teacher years ago)

“ Tracie was one of the sweetest, most loving, most giving people I've known. She had a uniquely sunny disposition and positive outlook on life that is reflected in the 3 lovely children she leaves behind. Our loss is Heaven's gain. Sue Mackintosh, Aunt

“ Saddened to hear of your passing. I remember us all playing at Grandma Thompson’s house... Easter’s, Christmas, or summer time get-together waiting for all the homemade ice cream. Bless you cousin and your journey. Even though as adults we didn’t see each other, we always share the Thompson family thread. Praying for your young family and your daddy. RIP always. Tell grandma and grandpa hi for me. Love always.
