

William James Ossmann

May 11, 2022

William James Ossmann, age 80, of Asheville, NC passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his family. “Bill was born in Chicago, IL, son to the late William Arthur and Georgianne Kosar Ossmann.

A man of great pride and integrity, Bill was a respected, life-long member of the Chicago Board of Trade. During his long career, he started many small companies. He also loved working with his children’s schools and with various local boards. Among his family and friends, Bill was well known as a wonderful cook and baker. Bill life was well - lived.

He is survived by his loving wife of 58 years Joyce Ann (Mearling) Ossmann of the home, his daughter, Kristen (Jackie) and his son, Eric William Ossmann (Michelle), his grandchildren; Sofia, Catalina, and William.

Services for Bill will be private for the family. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to Asheville Humane Society, <https://secure.ashevillehumane.org/site/Donation>

Tribute Wall

“ William James Ossmann

October 07, 2023 at 11:15 AM

“ Joyce, Eric & Kristen,
We were saddened by the news of Bill's passing and wish to offer our sincere condolences. While we have sort of fell out of touch recently, I have good memories of our times together back in the day. "Cactus" Bob also sends his regards from St Louis and he still talks about the tumbleweeds blowing across the golf course in Tucson.

Again, our deepest sympathies.

*Tom & Melanie Caldwell
caldwelltd@protonmail.com
Liberty, IN*

Tom & Melanie Caldwell - June 07, 2022 at 11:22 AM